 - FGAPC Member raised a question about whether a violation to SYS 1290, Code of Ethics constituted fiscal misconduct and needed to be included in this policy.
 - No change was made at this time. A violation of SYS 1290 can certainly result in a fiscal misconduct issue that needs to be investigated and resolved. However, the fiscal misconduct policy and procedure is not truly intended as a “playbook” for those types of matters. It is recommended that when SYS 1290 is next updated, we note that a violation of the policy could result in a fiscal misconduct matter that should be referred to the VP of Finance and Administration and the Chief Audit Executive.
